Gmail

- The best email client available!
- A Gmail account becomes your Google ID (Note: you can use an alternative email address to create a Google ID, but for integration with other Google products, this is not recommended)
- Stars (priority)
- Labels (not folders), which can be coloured for easy identification in inbox (Note: emails can be put in more than one Label)
- Filters can be used to sort emails, forward to others, star, label, etc.
- Can optionally use a "Priority Inbox"

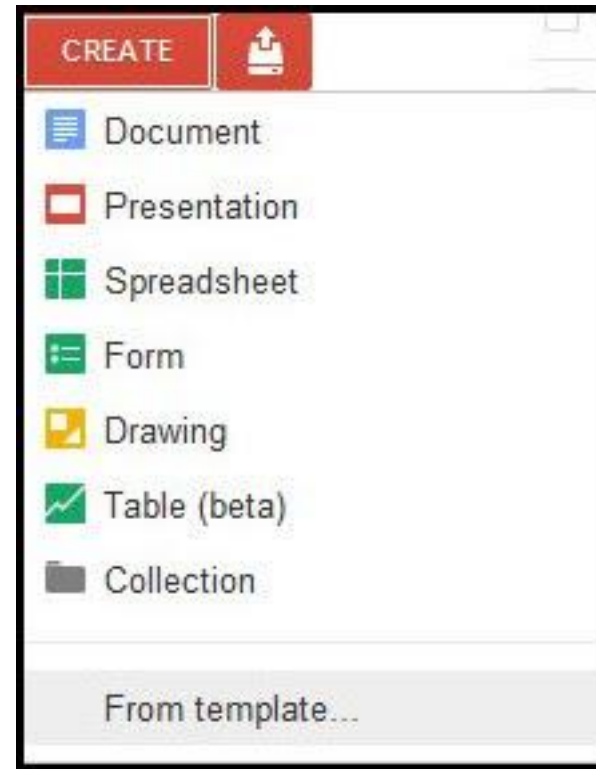

<https://www.gmail.com>

Gmail cont'd

- Can import from other email accounts (Hotmail, Sympatico, etc.)
- Can forward to other email accounts
- Can forward to cell phone (SMS)
  - [10-digit phone number]@pcs.rogers.com
  - [10-digit phone number]@txt.bell.ca
  - [10-digit phone number]@msg.telus.com
  - [10-digit phone number]@fido.ca
- Can have multiple return addresses (school board, personal)

Docs

- Word Processor
- Presentation
- Spreadsheet
- Form
- Drawing (vector)
- Table
- Fully collaborative
- Files can be private, public, or only shared with specific people or groups
- Can upload any type of file (up to 10 GB (!), if not converting to a Google Doc)

The screenshot shows the Google Docs Forms editor interface. At the top, the window title is "Edit form - [ Untitled Form ] - Google Docs". The address bar shows the URL "https://spreadsheets2.google.com/". The Google Docs logo is on the left, and the user's email "pbeens@gmail.com" with links for "Help" and "Sign out" is on the right. A blue toolbar contains the following items: a "+ Add Item" button, a "Theme: Plain" dropdown, an "Email this form" button, a "See responses" dropdown, a "More actions" dropdown, and a "Save" button. The form content includes a title "Test Form for ECOO" in a box, followed by a text area with the placeholder "You can include any text or info that will help people fill this out.". Below this are two questions: "What's your first name? *" with a text input field, and "What are your hobbies? *" with a larger text area. At the bottom, a dark grey banner displays the published form URL: "You can view the published form here: https://spreadsheets2.google.com/viewform?formkey=...".

Sites

- WYSIWYG website editor
- Extremely capable and versatile!
- Can be public or private
- Collaborative (perfect for sharing with a Google Group)
- See my Minds-on-Media resources at <http://goo.gl/CkUWd>

<http://sites.google.com>

Tasks

- Built into Gmail!
- Can organize into lists (work, home, spouse, etc.)
- Access on your mobile device at mail.google.com/tasks

- Control who you communicate with (send or receive), via circles
- Public or private to your chosen circles, or extended circles
- Video hangouts
- Fully searchable
- Hash tags are hot links
- Previews pictures; has become very popular with photographers (no quota on photos!)
- Threads can be "muted"
- Chat feature
- Messenger service

The screenshot shows the Google Groups interface for the 'Communications Technology Teachers of Ontario' group. The page is titled 'Google groups' and 'Communications Technology Teachers of Ontario'. It features a search bar and a 'Search this group' button. The main content area is titled 'Group settings' and includes tabs for 'General', 'Access', 'Appearance', 'Navigation', 'Email delivery', 'Categories', 'Advanced', and 'Spam controls'. The 'General' tab is selected, showing the group name, description, public website status, and group address. The group address is listed as 'http://groups.google.com/group/tgj-teachers' and 'tgj-teachers@googlegroups.com'. There is an 'Edit' button at the bottom of the settings section. On the right side, there are links for 'Home', 'Discussions', 'Members', 'About this group', 'Edit my membership', 'Group settings', 'Management tasks', and 'Invite members'. At the bottom, there are links for 'Create a group', 'Google Groups', 'Google Home', 'Terms of Service', and 'Privacy Policy', along with a copyright notice for 2011 Google.

URL Shortener

The image shows a screenshot of the Google URL Shortener web interface. At the top, the text "Google url shortener" is displayed, with "Google" in its multi-colored logo font and "url shortener" in a blue sans-serif font. Below this, there is a light blue rectangular area containing the main form. On the left, the text "Paste your long URL here:" is followed by a white text input field with a thin orange border. To the right of the input field is a grey button with the word "Shorten" in black text. Further to the right, the text "http://goo.gl/..." is shown. At the bottom of the light blue area, a line of small text reads: "All goo.gl URLs and click analytics are public and can be shared by anyone."
